

Call for volunteers

EXIT Festival

Period: 5-9 July 2017

Place: Petrovaradin Fortress, Novi Sad, Serbia

Deadline to apply: Monday (19 June) 14:00 h.

Dear friends,

Center for Intercultural Dialogue is looking for a team of enthusiastic volunteers for the EXIT Festival. As one of the biggest summer festivals in the area, EXIT is offering outstanding musical performances by local and international artists, but it also provides a large variety of interactive activities prepared by and for young people, in which the guests of the festival can take part.

CID will take part in EXIT with a team of volunteers who will organise activities for the attending guests during the 4 days of the festival in the period from 19 to 23 hours. The activities will be diverse, including drawing a puzzle game, playing quizzes and energizers, preparing balloons with messages etc.

What is required from you as a volunteer?

- To be 18+
- To be actively involved during the whole period of the festival
- To be familiar with the principles of non-formal education
- Preference will be given to active volunteers of the CID Volunteer Club

What benefits will you get?

- Free tickets to access all the concert venues
- Free accommodation for the period of the festival
- Making new friends and discovering NGOs from around the area
- A lot of fun and a colorful memory from the Summer of 2017

About EXIT:

EXIT Summer of Love festival will present a perfect combo of live and electronic acts, the mixture of various music genres, from famous rock and pop to cutting edge techno acts, all the way to stages dedicated to metal, punk, hard-core, reggae and experimental music. Such diverse program is possible due to EXIT's 30+ stages and festival zones each year spread across colossal moats throughout the fortress, hosting thousands of diverse artists! More information about the festival is available here.
