

CALL FOR TRAINERS

Center for Intercultural Dialogue (CID) and Young European Federalists Europe (JEF Europe) are looking for 6 (six) trainers to facilitate a 7-day Training Course for Facilitators and Organizers “Road to the Future”, to be held in Skopje.

The group will include a total of 56 young leaders from 14 different countries across Europe.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Building on a strong coalition of youth-led and volunteer-led civil society organisations and a network of political stakeholders and regional authorities, the project “Road to the Future” is designed to encourage and strengthen European-oriented youth participation for a specific democratic milestone, the European Parliament Elections 2019 and in the longer term for the future of Europe. The project is a joint partnership among 14 partner organizations and networks, from all across Europe. The initiative is built in two phases: the lead-up to the European Parliament elections 2019 and their follow-up.

The main goals are to:

- Develop the capacities of youth organisations and activists in a cross-border and synergy-finding perspective to facilitate, encourage and organise young people’s local debates about the European Parliament elections 2019.
- Raise awareness among European youth of the stakes at play for the European Elections and encourage them to vote.

ABOUT THE TRAINING COURSE

The training for organisers and facilitators will involve 56 young activists, youth leaders, young youth workers from youth organisations across the partnership and their local member organisations.

The participants will go through a process of capacity building in how to organise local inclusive events, activities and debates focusing on the participation of young voters in the European elections 2019.

The training will also include the use of the tools created during earlier project stages, as well as the testing of an interactive online platform prepared for the awareness raising campaign.

TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE TRAINERS:

- To develop and prepare the overall program and working methodology;
- To cooperate with the partner trainers and have regular communication with them;
- To have regular online meetings with the coordinator of the project;
- Prepare session outlines for each of the workshop sessions 15 days before the training at the latest;
- To have daily evaluations with the project coordinator and the trainer's team during the training;
- To closely follow the development of the participants' local initiatives, and provide them with advice and support;
- To prepare a final report; this needs to be submitted to the project coordinator 2 weeks after the training at the latest;
- Facilitate training sessions and provide suitable learning environment for all participants;
- To have an evaluation with the project coordinator after finishing of workshops.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Ability to develop an educational approach based on the principles and values of non-formal education;
- Ability to transfer knowledge and values related to the activity to the group of learners;
- Have knowledge and experience on topics covered by the training;
- Ability to collaborate and work in a multicultural team;
- Ability to respect deadlines;
- Ability to clearly express thoughts, feelings and emotions;
- Sensitivity to diversity;
- Ability to deal constructively with disagreements;
- Ability to create an inspiring and safe learning environment;
- Ability to stimulate active participation by motivating and empowering learners;
- Proficient user of English language, both in written and spoken English.

FINANCES:

- The travel to and from the training (Skopje) is covered by the organizers.

- The applicant is invited to propose a honorarium while taking into consideration all payable taxes.

The fee will be transferred to the trainer's bank accounts after providing a final report to the project coordinator.

DEADLINE: December 7th, 2018

HOW TO APPLY:

If interested, please send your CV and Motivation Letter to nami@cid.mk and info@cid.mk

Please include "Training Course for Facilitators and Organizers "Road to the Future" in the Subject title.

