Call for volunteers
D-Festival 2018

ഃരാ

Period: 5-9 July 2017
Place: Dojran, Macedonia
Deadline to apply: Monday (18th of June) 23:00.

Dear friends,

Center for Intercultural Dialogue is looking for a team of enthusiastic volunteers for the D-Festival. CID will take part in the D-Festival with a team of volunteers who will organise activities for the attending guests during the 3 days of the festival in the period from 10:00 to 16:00. The activities will include organising a game named "Mission Impossible", as well as an organisational stand with quizzes, board games, etc.

What is required from you as a volunteer?
- To be actively involved during the whole period of the festival (period from 10:00 to 16:00)
- To be familiar with the principles of non-formal education
- Preference will be given to active volunteers of the CID Volunteer Club and CID Academy

What benefits will you get?
- Free tickets to access all the concert venues
- Free camping space (tents will be provided)
- Making new friends and discovering NGOs from around the area
- A lot of fun and a colorful memory from the Summer of 2018

About D-Festival:
Each year D Festival is the party destination for more than 4.000 visitors who have enjoyed this festival with the remarkable concert performances of the music artists like Stereo MC's, Sonique, Djaikovski, Dubioza Kolektiv, Bernays Propaganda, String Forces, Superhiks, AREA, S.A.R.S., Baildsa, Zijan and many more. Everybody is eager for the upcoming edition of the festival. The date of the festival (end of July) is also a season which every year attracts more and more international and local tourists and many young people who believe in the potential of Dojran as attractive location. More information about the festival is available here.
